THE NEWS OF THE DAY

Count Appononi's Speech in the Hungarian Diet.

DISPATCHES FROM MINISTER STEVENS

A National Fault Making Itself Felt—Mrs. M. B. Carrs Vindicated—Impachment Articles—Will Follow Our Lead.

Count Appononi's Speech in the Hungarian Diet.

HUNGARY, April 7.—In the Hungarian diet yesterday Count Appononi, the leader of the party of the left, made a speech in the course of which he referred to the fact that Emperor Joseph had not been in the Hungarian capital for five months, in fact not since the freedom of the city had been conferred on the great Hungarian patriot Louis Kossuth. The speaker declared that a cause for estrangement ought not to be sought by the emperor-king or his advisers in the expression of national sentiment evidenced by the conferring of the freedom of Budapest upon Kossuth, but that a cause might rather be sought in the way national institutions were managed. The conviction that the national aspirations of Hungary would not only not conflict with the interests of the crown, but would form the safest basis for a defense of the crown's rights, coupled with a bold declaration of national policy, would soon scatter the existing clouds.

Count Appononi concluded his remarks in reference to the matter by declaring that should the symptoms of bad feeling show themselves, he would bring the matter to the attention of parliament in a more direct manner than he at present felt called upon to assume.

Count Appononi's reference to the absence of the emperor was listened to with close attention, and his remarks were evidently met with approbation, for upon the conclusion of his address to his majesty the sentiments he had expressed were loudly cheered.

DISPATCHES FROM MINISTER STEVENS

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The department of state is informed yesterday that the Australian brought to San Francisco from Honolulu a number of dispatches from Minister Stevens at Honolulu, which are now on their way to Washington by mail.

Dr. Mott Smith, Hawaiian minister to the United States, called at the state department yesterday and had an interview with Secretary Gresham. He informed the secretary that he had received no intimation that he would be recalled by the provisional government, as stated in a San Francisco dispatch yesterday morning.

Nathan H. Thurston, Mr. Carter, of the Hawaiian annexation commission, is in the city at present. Mr. Carter is in Boston, but is expected to return to-day or to-morrow; the date of Mr. Thurston's return is uncertain. He left for Chicago two weeks ago announcing that he would be absent a few days only on World's Fair business, but Wednesday his baggage was forwarded to him on telegraphic order.

A National Fault Making Itself Felt.

CHICAGO, April 7.—The carelessness of American exhibitors at the World's Fair is likely to cause serious trouble in arranging exhibits and may delay the installation of some displays until June. It is estimated that between now and the first of May 1,700 carloads of exhibits will arrive at the park, whereas the cars are being shipped in less than half that number. The consequence is that the whole trainload is arriving at the park on freight bills on which nothing is given to show the nature of the exhibit.

To facilitate the handling of exhibits the World's fair management sent out months ago instructions setting forth particularly that all cars of exhibits must have cards attached specifying the building for which the exhibits are intended. Foreign exhibitors have followed these instructions to the letter, but many American exhibitors have totally ignored them. The consequence is that the whole trainload is arriving at the park on freight bills on which nothing is given to show the nature of the exhibit.

Mrs. M. B. Carrs Vindicated.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Mrs. M. B. Carrs, president of the local Women's Christian Temperance union, against whom charges of mismanagement have been made, was completely vindicated yesterday at the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the women's temple. In regard to the mismanagement of the restaurant, Mrs. Carrs said that they had opened a restaurant down town, but were forced to move twice by the proprietors of two big stores opening restaurants in their places of business, and finally decided to close as their trade had been taken from them.

Mrs. Carrs then directed her attention to a reporter of a morning paper which has from time to time published articles of mismanagement on her part, denouncing them as false from beginning to end. She ordered the reporter to leave the hall, which he did. At the afternoon session of the union Mrs. Carrs was unanimously re-elected president. Other officers were chosen and a number of reports read.

Articles of Impeachment Adopted.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 7.—When the joint convention reconvened immediately after roll-call, which showed the presence of twenty-five senators and eighty-three members of the house, the secretary began reading the articles of impeachment against John E. Hill, ex-treasurer of the state of Nebraska. The articles were adopted and will be presented to the supreme court. The joint convention then adjourned.

A PLEASANT CELEBRATION.
Dunham Post and Other Patriotic Organizations Commemorate the Founding of the G. A. R.
A large number of people, principally members of the G. A. R., W. B. C. S., V., and L. A. G. S., gathered at the Grand Army Hall last night to celebrate the twenty-seventh anniversary of the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic. There was no arrangement to make the celebration formal and there was no program. After all had assembled, Post Commander Roberts took the chair and called the meeting to order. Sheriff Peet took charge of the organ and everybody joined in the singing, which "Farmer" Coltrin said "was the worst he had ever heard." But the "farmer" does not know good singing when he hears it, which relieves those who did the singing last night. After singing there were short and appropriate addresses by W. F. Oshorn, F. L. Muzzy, L. N. Coltrin, W. H. Shorb, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Bradley, interspersed with patriotic songs. After part of the evening had been spent in this way, by common consent the meeting was resolved into a social affair, and all enjoyed themselves in a social chat for some time longer and then adjourned.

Death of an Old Pioneer.
Augustus Dinger died at his home southeast of Orem at 3 o'clock, this Friday morning, aged 70 years. His wife died on Feb. 2, 1891. He came to Illinois from Lancaster Co., Pa., about 40 years ago. Six children survive him. They are John, Samuel, William, Henry George and Mrs. Ella Mathine. John resides at Uterbury, Kansas, George at Storm Lake, Iowa, and the others all reside in Macon county.
The funeral will take place at the Union church southeast of Orem to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.
Deceased came to Illinois in March, 1853, by way of Chicago, Dubuque and Springfield. On reaching Decatur he had but very little money. He entered the employ of the late Samuel Brown, and worked for him on the old farm southeast of the city. He was next in the employ of the late Uncle David Garver at $20 a month, putting in one whole summer breaking prairie land. Mr. Garver and Mr. Dinger, with six yoke of oxen each, broke hundreds of acres of land in the vicinity of Forsyth. He bought 40 acres of land which now forms a part of the home place of 80 acres. He was the owner of 165 acres of well improved land. The 40 acres originally purchased stood him $15 per acre. The first threshing machine ever brought to Macon county was bought by Mr. Dinger and Samuel Shatter. That was a year after the war. Through farming and threshing Mr. Dinger and his sons made enough money to buy 80 acres of land. In those days farmers paid 9 cents a bushel for threshing.

Didn't Stop in Decatur.
Miss Beanie Mitchell Doolittle, who is journeying over the country to demonstrate the perfect arrangements for thorough travel in America, arrived at St. Louis yesterday morning over the Iron Mountain line from Texas, escorted by Gen. Edmund Allison, general advertising agent of the Missouri Pacific. Miss Doolittle was met at the Union station by Col. Herbert Darned, general advertising agent of the Wabash, and escorted to the Wabash express for Toledo and Detroit, en route for Boston and New York. The young lady, by the time she reaches Chicago, will have traveled over 12,000 miles of railroad. A pleasant reception has been accorded her everywhere. Miss Beanie passed through Decatur yesterday afternoon, went through eastward on the Iron Mountain line, and closed her trip April 10th, when she will arrive in Chicago on time.

The Field Day.
Last night a conference of Decatur Sunday school superintendents and church and township officers was held in the office of J. Free & Cloud. Township conventions were discussed, but the principal subject was the Sunday school field day for Macon county. It was unanimously decided to have it Thursday, June 23d. The necessary committees will be announced in a few days by the county president, J. R. Gorin. The superintendents are enthusiastically in favor of such a day. A program of interesting work has been prepared. Bishops Sunday school is represented last night. A second meeting will be held Thursday night next in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. It was also arranged to soon begin a canvass of the city in the interest of the Sunday school.

Not D. A. Moffit.
Have and there about the city are voters who have heard to say that they will gladly vote for D. A. Moffit for mayor. It is difficult to explain how the impression got out that Duo was a candidate. It probably grows out of the confusion of his name with that of the Democratic nominee for mayor. He is D. O. Moffit, not Moffit. Duo is a thoroughbred Republican and the prices of good fellows, but he does not reside in the city limits and is not eligible to a city office. The Republican nominee for mayor is M. F. Kanan, who will be triumphantly elected over D. C. Moffit, his opponent on the Democratic ticket.

Fatal Fight.
Thomas J. Brewster, aged 50, an old resident of Shelby county, was dangerously wounded in a fight with a neighbor, John Sullivan, last night. An old feud started an altercation which finally resulted, it is said, in Sullivan smuging an axe and striking Brewster on the head. Brewster will probably die. Sullivan is in custody at Shelbyville.

Died at Ramsey.
Isaac L. Harris, brother of Contractor Harris, this city, died April 6th at his home in Ramsey. The deceased was a member of Eastern Camp of Modern Woodmen No. 620 of this city. Camp 428 of Ramsey will have charge of the funeral which will take place to-day. Deputy Head Consul F. B. Easterly will attend the services.

They are Plowing Up Wheat.
It seems to be quite certain now that a great deal of the ground that was sown to wheat last fall, will have to be plowed up. In fact, many acres have already been covered with oats and more will be planted with corn. Not all of the wheat, however, will be plowed up, as a good deal of it is very good and will make a fair crop.

THE BERRY HEARD FROM.
Soldiers of Christ Marching On in Decatur.
From the very first the war on sin and Satan's kingdom, at the First Methodist and other churches in the city, has been waxing warm as the days have gone by, until at last the enemy has cried out: "Disgrace—disgrace—ministers show war dance." Most hopeful sign. Take courage, ye soldiers of the cross. When Satan howls, his kingdom is being disturbed. In these days of church popularity the devil has become exceedingly respectable and is regular in church attendance; but let the minister preach the plain unvarnished Bible truth—law and gospel, heaven and hell—which always has and will be attended with Holy Ghost power, so that sinners are convicted and converted, over which there is joy in heaven, and saints shout on earth; then of course this respectable devil cries out "disgrace." He objects to joy and enthusiasm in religion but wants more of it in politics.
Dr. Parker the pastor, has been poorly for a few days, but is present to do his best in helping in the good work. "Christianity Compatible with Joyful Enjoyment" was the theme of the evening. "Witnesses," said the evangelist, how many under twenty-five can say, it is well you stand. About thirty young men and women responded. "Oh! the Joy That Await Me" was the solo. Text—"Thou wilt show me the path of life; in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures forever more." This theme is not present as an inducement for any one to become a Christian, for until one has come right of all these things and is himself a true sinner, without hope, he will not appreciate a savior. Who wants a life-boat if he is not drowning or a fire escape if there is no fire. The most miserable life in those who are constantly reveling in pleasure; the most happy are those who are in barter with their maker, and are filling the mission for which they are created. The spirit accompanied the truth. Many rose for prayer and some professed conversion at the altar. Theme to-night: "A Sure Cure for Unbelief."
